STATEMENT MADE BY CLERK GRAHAM

Says Inspector's Report Does Him a Gross Injustice.

Preparing Sworn Statement—Judge Lightfoot to Appoint an Accountant.

LATEST FROM COUNTY SCANDAL

A reporter for the Sun saw County Clerk Charles Graham this morning, and asked him if he had any statement to give out with reference to the official report of State Inspector Hines to the governor, and he replied that he was just getting ready to go out to keep his appointment at the candidates speaking this afternoon, and that he did not have time to prepare the statement that he wished to make.

He said in substance, however, that the report did him a great injustice and was not correct in some of the most important details; that the state administration was against him in this race for sheriff, and Inspector Hines' report was colored to serve their purpose; that he (Hines) was brought down here to investigate his office at the instigation of Deputy Sheriff Will Lydon, his opponent for office, and for the prime purpose of diverting attention from the sheriff's office and its scandal.

He said that while on the face of the report, it looked as if there were negligences; that in going over his books, in checking up with the auditor, he found numerous instances where he had made settlements, and proper credit had not been given him; that it is, and always has been the custom to make settlements with the auditor every six or eight months; that this is done by all the county offices, and that in the statement he intends giving out, in detail, of every thing, he will show that he has not been indebted to the state for any amounts other than naturally were due it between settlements. Further, that it has been the custom of the auditor's agent to report when called upon, and that his father, for whom he was deputy was already to make his report, and render the proper accounting, but that in Hines' report it was made to appear that money due the state from the auditor's agent was, in fact, due from the county clerk.

Mr. Graham further stated that his statement would be ready just as soon as he could prepare it, and the public would be given all the facts in every detail, and that the statement would put an entirely different aspect on the case.

He also said that his father, the auditor's agent, had never been called upon to make a settlement until he was asked to do so by Mr. Hines the past few weeks.

In connection, Mr. Graham said, in his statement he would give affidavits to substantiate all his claims and assertions.

The Sheriff's Books.

State Inspector Hines is still at work on the sheriff's books, and stated today that the 1902 books will not be gone over, unless enough irregularities are found in the other two books to warrant it. It will probably require a week longer to finish on the two books for 1903 and 1904.

Weather Interfers With Speakings.

The Democratic speakings are not much of a success at present, owing to the fact that the weather is bad. Yesterday afternoon there was a small crowd at Massac, and Judge Lightfoot was called down by Col. Gus Singleton for talking too long. The candidates seem to all want an equal division, and object to anyone monopolizing the time. Judge Lightfoot spoke but twenty minutes, however. It is proposed to hereafter limit them to five minutes. Some of the candidates could tell even more than they know, in that time.

The next speakings are at Milan this afternoon and Lamont tomorrow afternoon. The general public is waiting for the candidates to invade the city. Since recent developments in the official inspections, it is said the speakings will be "some hot." At least three races are said to have been already materially changed by the inspector's report.

SENATE DECIDES ON NEW TREATY

President Willing to Accept Reasonable Amendments.

A Vote May Be Taken This Afternoon—Many Minor Changes Made in Original.

THE WORK MAY SOON BE OVER.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—It is announced on authority of the president that he will accept any reasonable amendments to the Santo Domingo treaty that the senate may make, and will endeavor to secure the consent of the Dominican government to the changes.

The treaty was practically perfected yesterday by the senate committee on foreign relations so far as phraseology is concerned and without regard to the principles involved in the procedure proposed by the Dominican convention. The committee progressed so far that it was agreed to take a vote on the treaty today to determine whether the report be in favor of ratification or rejection.

What that report will be cannot be determined positively, although it is believed it will be favorable. The democrats on the committee have expressed themselves as against fundamentally, although they took an active part in the presentation and adoption of amendments. It is expected that most of the republican senators will vote to report the treaty as amended. All amendments adopted by the committee are with the general aim of making the question covered stand alone and of removing all chance of it being used as a precedent for like procedure in other countries under guise of being required by the Monroe doctrine. For instance, one of the first amendments strikes out that portion of the second paragraph of the preamble which has been constructed as a definite and application of the Monroe doctrine to the Santo Domingo case.

Funeral of John H. Reagan.

Palestine, Tex., Mar. 9.—The remains of Former Senator John H. Reagan were today laid to rest in the family lot at East Hill cemetery.

Deputy Sheriff Wm. Lydon have agreed on Prof. John D. Smith to conduct the examination of County Clerk Charles Graham's books to ascertain how much back taxes he owes McCracken county.

Mr. Lydon's card suggesting Prof. Smith was published yesterday, and today the following letter was given Prof. Smith.

Paducah, Ky., March 9, 1905.
Prof. J. D. Smith, City.

Dear Sir:

Judge Lightfoot, unable to reach you, has phoned me from some point in the county, to request you to at once, agreeable to Mr. Lydon's suggestion, begin an investigation of County Clerk Graham's books in behalf of the county. He instructs that you begin at the date of the said clerk's induction into this office, and make a careful and accurate report of the same, and as promptly as this may be done.

Your services will be paid for by the county which you now represent officially as special examiner.

Very respectfully,

JAS. M. LANG.

VICTORIOUS JAPS MARCH INTO MUKDEN

Russian Army in Full Retreat—Casualties May Reach 100,000.

Oyama Reported to Have Cut Off Kuropatkin and Destroyed the Railroad.

THE MOST SANGUINARY BATTLE OF THE WAR

Tokio, Mar. 9.—Messages from the front state that the battle before Mukden was the bloodiest of the war and over eight thousand Russians lie dead before General Oku's army alone.

It is said that reports from other armies will treble this number, and the casualties on both sides will probably reach a hundred thousand.

It is stated that Oyama has directed his army not to encamp in large bodies near Mukden, in order to appease the native residents and safeguard the historic cradle of the Manchurian dynasty.

JAPS CUT RAILWAY.

Tokio, Mar. 9.—Official confirmation has been given that the Japanese have cut the railway north of Mukden and their pursuit of the Russian army continues.

ARE THEY IN POSSESSION?

Berlin, Mar. 9.—The Lokal Anzeiger prints a dispatch to the effect that the Japanese have occupied Mukden.

TO OCCUPY MUKDEN TODAY.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 9.—According to information received by Minister Takahira from Tokio, the Japanese expect to capture Mukden today. In anticipation of this event Gen. Oyama has issued an order strictly prohibiting his troops from taking quarters within the walls of the city.

Retreat Was Orderly.

Mukden, Mar. 9.—The Russian army is leaving positions south and southwest of Mukden. The sky was lighted with a brilliant glare of burning warehouses, where tons of commissary supplies were given to the flames. Retirement is being effected in perfect order, the Russians beating off attacks of pushing Japanese.

Withdrawal was necessitated by the heavy concentration of Japanese west and northwest of Mukden whither they have transferred a large share of forces from the southern front to reinforce the original striking force of Nogi.

Bloodiest of War.

Bulletin—Tokio, Mar. 9.—Advices received here indicate that Kuropatkin is badly beaten in the bloodiest battle of the present war.

A Jap Victory Reported.

Washington, Mar. 9.—The state department has been officially informed from Tokio that the Japanese have achieved a great victory before Mukden and that the Russian army is in full retreat. Casualties are numerous on both sides.

The Loss Appalling.

Tokio, Mar. 9.—The great battle in Manchuria raged all day yesterday along the entire enormous front. The Japanese were generally victorious, and they drove the Russians from a series of important positions. By nightfall it seemed imperative that Kuropatkin would have to withdraw his shattered legions to avoid complete disaster.

The continuous battle is already the bloodiest of the war. Upon the ground that Oku alone gained lie eight thousand Russians dead. Report from other armies are expected to triple this figure. It is estimated that the Japanese have lost 50,000 making the joint slaughter so far exceed 74,000 men. Details of the combat are lacking, but it is believed that Japanese have cut the railway north of Mukden, leaving only the roadways and light railway from Fushun to Tie Pass as avenues for the retreat of the Russians, but army headquarters refrain from affirming or denying the report to that effect.

Details of the operations against Fushun are not yet at hand, but it is understood that, following the capture of Manchuntan, the Japanese renewed the assault on Tie Pass and dislodged the Russians.

Russians Concede Nothing.

St. Petersburg, March 9.—That disaster has overtaken General Kuropatkin's legions is something that the officials of the departments decline to admit. However, the peril of the Russian position at Mukden is conceded.

As to peace the war office declines to admit its arrival, even should General Kuropatkin be overwhelmingly defeated.

Russia Has Only Started.

London, March 9.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times cables a story, which, if borne out by facts, would indicate that despite the disastrous reverses which have attended Russian arms by land and sea in the Far East, Russia has so far only begun her fight.

It is now proposed to send another 400,000 soldiers to Manchuria. It was decided at the imperial council to inaugurate a fresh plan of campaign, withdrawing the Russian forces from southern Manchuria northward toward Harbin, and to make Vladivostok the base for the campaign of conquest to be undertaken forthwith.

7,000 Lost On Right Flank.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 9.—Dispatches from the front state that the Russian army on the east is retiring in good order, and soldiers are destroying the stores as they retire. The fighting has become rear guard action. The Russian losses yesterday on the right flank alone were seven thousand.

Kuropatkin May Be Cut Off.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 9.—A Russian correspondent reports that two Japanese divisions are north of Mukden. Officials here manifest the greatest uneasiness as the indications are Kuropatkin is hemmed in by the

Building Block Plant May Locate Here

Mr. Simon Green, of Henderson, Ky., is in the city, the guest of City Engineer L. A. Washington. Mr. Green is accompanied by Mr. F. P. Jenkins, also of Henderson, and they are looking over the field here with a view of locating a building block plant, and are today in conference with local capitalist with that object in view.

which these gentlemen are interested is a cement block to be used in buildings, and is understood to be a fine thing.

There is no plant for the manufacture of them at present, but when one is established it will afford employment for many people, and would doubtless be an important industry for Paducah, should she land it.

DEADLOCK LIKELY IN COLORADO NOW

Effort to Seat Peabody Yesterday Was Unsuccessful.

Democrats Claim They Will Today Spring a Trick to Retain Adams.

THE RESULT IS IN DOUBT

Denver, March 9.—Proceedings in the joint convention of the general assembly yesterday indicate a deadlock in the gubernatorial contest. Twenty-two Republican members joined forces with the Democrats on the latest vote and these Republicans, it is reported, have agreed to stand together in favor of seating Lieutenant-governor McDonald as governor. There are 44 other Republican members that can be depended upon it is said to vote for Peabody. This is five less than a majority. The Democratic vote of 31 on joint ballot will be cast solidly for Adams.

Immediately after the joint convention assembled a motion was made for the adoption of the majority report of the committee in favor of seating Peabody. The Democrats were silent and a Peabody Republican member moved the adoption of the Democratic report in favor of Adams. Another Peabody Republican moved the adoption of Alexander's report, declaring the governorship vacant and awarding the office to McDonald.

Speaker Dickson made a point of order that the Alexander report could not be accepted as there were only two parties to the contest, Peabody and Adams. Chairman McDonald (Lieutenant governor), sustained the point of order. An appeal was made from the ruling and despite the efforts of Peabody Republicans to prevent a vote being taken, the roll call was ordered. The assembly refused by a vote of 52 to 42 to sustain the chair. This places the Alexander report before the joint convention. Before a motion could be made on the minority Republican report in favor of Adams a recess was taken until tomorrow.

May Settle Today.

Denver, March 9.—A plan for disposing of the contest over the governorship and retaining Adams in the chair is announced by Adams supporters. It is to be brought about by the aid of certain Republicans, though they will not be required to vote directly to seat Adams. According to the claims of the Adams people, they have secured the signatures of twenty-two Republican members to an agreement to vote down all three reports from the contest committee. With the thirty-one Democrats, who, it is reported, will act with the Republicans above mentioned, the result will be majority of four. By defeating all three reports the effect will be to allow Adams to retain his seat.

On the other hand, the Peabody Republicans claim that they have 46 pledged to stand together for Peabody, and that this pledge was made at tonight's caucus.

ANOTHER CLERK IS ALLOWED PADUCAH

Department Gives Local Post-office Its Eighth.

Also Secures Increase in Salary of $100 a Year for the Clerks Now in Service.

IS EFFECTIVE JULY THE FIRST

Postmaster F. M. Fisher advised the local office today that while in Washington this week he was advised that his application for more clerks in the office had been considered favorably and that he would be given one additional clerk the first of July, and also that his recommendation for increases in salaries had been allowed and the increases would be made at that time also, July 1.

This means an increase for all the clerks of a hundred dollars a year.

When Postmaster Fisher went into office seven years ago, it had a force of only three clerks, and while it is a hard matter to get the force raised to the number it should be, by persistence he has secured, with the one allowed for July, five additional clerks.

The department makes it a rule to allow only one clerk a year to offices in cities the size of Paducah, and if the office had had the proper quota of clerks when the present administration went in it would now have the force the business demands, and to which it is entitled.

When Postmaster Fisher took charge of the office, the average salary of the clerks was between $400 and $500 and, by getting raises each year, he has brought the average up to near $1,000.

CANAL BOARD

WILL PROBABLY BE REORGANIZED THIS WEEK.

President Roosevelt to Give Chief Engineer Wallace a Free Hand in Building Canal.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 9.—The expected dismissal of the present Isthmian canal commission, of which Admiral Walker is chairman, will it is stated, take place within the week.

The president will completely reorganize the commission. His plan is to appoint two or three men of wide experience in the organization and conduct of large business enterprises, who will form a sort of board of directors.

Chief Engineer Wallace will be given a free hand to execute the work.

BACKBONE OF STRIKE

HAS BEEN BROKEN SAY RAILWAY OFFICIALS.

Cars in Gotham Are Running On Better Time Today Than They Have in Some Time.

New York, Mar. 9.—Traffic conditions on the subway and elevated lines showed a marked improvement today over the conditions which obtained yesterday. Officials of the company confidently assert that the backbone of the strike of five thousand employees has been broken.

Several trains in the subway were manned today by strikers who have returned to work, and the company hopes to have the roads running on normal schedule by Saturday.

Gets Life Imprisonment.

Henderson, Ky., March 9.—The jury brought in a verdict of life imprisonment in the case of Chas. Finch, the sixth of the nine Pembroke negroes to be tried for the murder of a stranger near Pembroke, about eighteen months ago. At a former trial a year ago Finch received a death sentence. Dick Carney, another one who was given a death sentence a year ago. The remaining two will be tried at once.

BURNED OUT.

Nevel Plan Adopted by Marshall County Man to Get Liberty.

On Tuesday night Cecil Ford, the only occupant of our county jail, burned a hole through the floor and with some outside assistance made his escape from prison, says the Benton Tribune. He was serving a jail term of 150 days for breach of the peace, with the working clause included in the judgment. It is not known what time in the night he made his escape, but as he used two iron pokers, which he heated in the stove to do the burning, it must have been late at night when he got out. The sentiment of the people of the town seems to be all one way, and that is, that he will get out of the state and stay away.

CADE STEWART IS NOW BOAT CAPTAIN

Popular Pilot Becomes Master on City of Memphis.

Is a Brother of Dr. P. H. Stewart and Has Many Friends in Paducah.

ARRIVES IN PADUCAH SUNDAY.

The St. Louis and Tennessee river steamer City of Memphis will have a new captain on her roof when she arrives at Paducah for the first time in six months, Saturday morning from St. Louis.

This captain will be a former Paducah boy, and a young man with many friends here—Mr. J. Cade Stewart. It will hereafter be "Captain" Stewart, because he has just been made master of the boat, a most responsible position, and one which shows the confidence the pack-line has in him.

Mr. Stewart is a brother of Dr. P. H. Stewart, of Paducah, and is here very often. He has lived here and is one of the most popular young men among the many popular ones in river circles. His home was originally in Smithland, Ky., but for many years he has spent most of his time in Paducah and St. Louis. He has been a pilot on Tennessee and Mississippi river boats for a number of years, and was regularly on the Tennessee river boats until they had to lay up on account of low water.

He was until yesterday captain of the Gondola, which has been towing garbage at St. Louis, and is succeeding on the boat by Capt. Arthur Miller.

The City of Savannah passed up Monday, and the City of Memphis was to have left St. Louis yesterday for Tennessee river, but on account of bad weather the departure was delayed until this afternoon, which will put the boat in Paducah about Saturday.

Gus Michel has been made first clerk on the boat, and Hart Kelley, the latter of Paducah, is second clerk.

GOBBLED UP

SIGN PAINTERS ARRESTED FOR PAINTING A WALL.

Mayfield is Somewhat Agog Over the Plight of the Itinerant Painters.

Two peripatetic sign painters struck a snag in Mayfield yesterday. They left Paducah, where they had smooth sailing, for the county seat of Graves, where a squall struck them.

The Mayfield Messenger tells the rest:

R. E. McKay and R. R. Conner, who are high-class painters and represent the Gunning System of Chicago, were warranted yesterday and brought before Judge Webb this morning charged with trespass. The crime for which they were arrested was for painting one of these flashy Coca-Cola signs on the west wall of the Ivy Brick store joining the vacant lot belonging to the Christian church. The "flashing" sign did not suit the officials of the church and consequently these painters were arrested, charged with trespassing.

They were represented by Attorney W. J. Webb, and when they were brought before County Judge Webb this morning, he decided that he did not have jurisdiction over the case, as the grand jury was then in session. The case was transferred to the circuit court and they were carried before Judge Bugg, to await the action of the grand jury, and in default of bail were remanded to jail.

The Monitor adds:

They afterwards gave bond with Messrs. Z. T. Long and Ed. Gardner as sureties. The painters obtained permission from Mr. Z. T. Long, who is agent of Mr. J. H. Ivey, the owner of the business houses next to the Christian church. They proceeded to paint a large sign which was objected to by some of the congregation and so the arrest. The church claims the ownership of half the wall while Mr. Long claims the wall belongs to Mr. Ivey. The grand jury will likely examine the case at once.

A good resolution is always stronger at its birth than at any other stage of its existence.

BASEBALL DOPE.

At a meeting of Princeton ball team No. 1 last Friday night at Dr. Ogilvie's office much business, pertaining to this season's game, was transacted. Dr. Ogilvie was elected manager and George Pettit captain. The line-up of the team will be as follows: Claude Akin, catcher; Guy Stevens, pitcher; L. Greer, 1st b.; George Pettit, 2nd b.; C. Moore, 3rd b.; H. Moore, short stop; Mark Goldnamer, left field; Duke Pettit, center field; Bitay Pettit, right field. The old ball ground has been leased for this season. Sample of goods has been ordered from which suits will be selected.—Princeton Leader.

The following from Montgomery, Ala., where the New York Americans are practicing, was published in the New York Daily Telegraph:

"Hollywood showed up especially well. He has been practicing during the winter and looked fit to jump right into a regular game. He has a free, natural swing, good speed and a raise ball much like McGinnity's, of which he appeared to have good control. Hollywood let himself out more than the others, and made a splendid impression, both as pitcher and a batter."

In a private letter to the Bulletin Mr. Wallace C. Dyer, sporting editor of the Henderson Gleaner, says:

"Henderson now has seventeen good men under contract and the conditions for successful season in Henderson were never brighter. The team will be managed by Pitcher Harry Kubitz, the fans are enthusiastic and we will have a solid financial business. For the first time in history all the stock in the local club is backed by Henderson business men and they will see that the town goes the full route. We are not making any pennant boasts but we hope to have a hustling first division team and not a tail end first division outfit, either.—Cairo Bulletin.

The Henderson Daily Journal says: "A majority of cities have announced their desire of wanting a short schedule while Vincennes and Paducah want as many as 150 games which is six more than the American League will play this season. Princeton, Hopkinsville and Henderson favor 110 games, while Cairo would like to have 126. Over this number would bankrupt the smaller cities, the public does not want too much and each game played over 110 is played at a great loss to the stockholders. Wallace Dyer and Jack Zimbro, Jr., will represent Henderson at the meeting.

This morning Mr. G. A. Fargey, a traveling salesman for a dental firm, of Memphis, made certain accusations about Doctors Jim Dismukes and Herman Boswell. This reached the ears of Dr. Dismukes in a short time and he immediately called on Mr. Fargey at the Hotel Hall. Dr. Boswell was at that time at the hotel buying goods from the gentleman, entirely unaware that anything detrimental had been said about him. Dr. Dismukes came in while they were transacting business and he and Mr. Fargey had come to blows in a few seconds. Dr. Boswell and other bystanders separated them. Mr. Fargey left on the first train.—Mayfield Monitor.

Theatrical Notes

Mr. English requests every one to be in their seats before 8:15 at Mr. Mansfield's performance tonight as no one will be seated during the first act.

Announcement of a performance of "The Holy City," interests theatre-goers to an uncommon degree. The great biblical drama and the sumptuous production given it, the strength of the acting company, the music and grand spectacle with which the play abounds, furnishes dramatic satisfaction and scenic pleasure so complete and grateful that managers Gordon & Bennett's enterprises are a leading feature in all columns containing theatrical news. Seldom has a play been so immediately noted, because seldom has one play so many points of value. At The Kentucky Saturday night.

Slaves of the Far East, the Gertrude Ewing company's opening offering, will be seen for the first time in this city at The Kentucky, Monday, March 13. It is said to be one of the best dramas of its kind that has been presented in several years. Realism is a most pronounced feature of this performance, not only in the characters presented, but in the scenic features shown throughout the production. It bounds in strong heart interest, heroic and dramatic climaxes, and clever comedy situations, and is as clean and pure a story as was ever told. One of the notable features the Ewing company of

MAKES NEW MOVE

MR. L. A. LAGOMARSINO APPLIES FOR A NEW LICENSE.

Will Attempt to Get It From Council—May Be Beginning of the End of the Fight.

Mr. L. A. Lagomarsino has filed application with City Clerk Henry Bailey for a new saloon license at Second and Broadway, and the application will be submitted this evening to the board of Aldermen. It is understood that if the general council grants the license, Mr. Lagomarsino will be willing to drop the fight that is in progress between himself and the city officials, and promise to "be good." He does not say this, but his latest action indicates that it is what he means, as he has gotten the worst of the argument thus far and is likely to keep getting it unless some sort of compromise is made.

Mr. Lagomarsino, by forfeiting his other license, loses the $75 he paid for it, but he may take out another one for the remainder of the first six months for $50 if the boards will grant it, and it is likely that in view of the possibility of dropping the fight, and the salutary effect the first revocation has had, that the boards will grant him another license.

RICHARD MANSFIELD, NOTED ACTOR, PAYS PADUCAH HIS FIRST VISIT

The special train bearing Mr. Richard Mansfield and his company arrived in Paducah on schedule time, 9:55 o'clock, this morning and will leave at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning for Louisville.

The special is unusually large, consisting of five baggage cars, two sleepers, one day coach and the private car of Mr. Mansfield.

The five baggage cars and the private coach of the actor were taken to Eleventh street crossing and the sleepers and day coach side-tracked at the depot.

Mr. Mansfield, unfortunately for himself as well as the reporters, is never "at home" to reporters. It is said that the yellow journals have done so much in the way of misquoting him, that he never talks to a newspaper man for publication on any subject. He is always courteous to them if he meets them, and they act as gentlemen, but never talks for publication. This is the only reason that the Sun has no interview with the noted actor today.

Perhaps the story of Richard Mansfield's first coming to America has been told before, but here it is, culled from a recently discovered letter written by the late celebrated bandmaster Patrick Gilmore, who was the man to whom America was indebted for Mansfield, as will be indirectly seen by his own narrative:

"I have known him since he was a youth, at his mother's home in London, and it was no surprise to me, when I heard of his success on the stage, in the 'Parisian Romance' allowance, and he was adrift in London without anyone to depend upon. He stayed there two or three years, with entree to good society, but with devilish little in his pocket. He has told me that some days about all he ate was what he got from the spreads at receptions and parties.

"He got into the company of a popular entertainer, but his first appearance was a dire failure. Stage fright and discouragement got the upper hand of him, and he failed. He was bounced. D'Oyle Carte had a competitive examination for a comic opera company to play the provinces in 'Pinafore.' Mansfield tried for the Captain's part. Gilbert and Sullivan and several celebrities were present at the examination, and when it came to Mansfield's turn to sing he said he would sing a duet, and he did. He sang a soprano and baritone duet, and they kept him singing and imitating for half an hour. Carte had the part fixed for a friend, but a countess who had been an intimate friend of Richard's mother interposed in his behalf and obtained him the place. It was worth $15 a week, and he kept it until he struck for higher wages. That was treason. Then he went to New York and I guess you know the rest."

Mansfield comes to The Kentucky tonight, his first visit to Paducah, and is promised one of the largest audiences in the history of the house.

Mr. Mansfield's late well-known manager, A. M. Palmer, is dead in New York. Mr. Palmer was stricken with apoplexy and never rallied. He was for years the most prominent theatrical manager in America. He was 67 years old. Mr. Palmer was a native of Connecticut. For ten years beginning in 1872 he was manager of Union Square theater and afterward of Madison Square theater and Palmer's theater. He was a founder and for fourteen years president of the Actor's Fund of America, and one of the founders and vice president of the Players' club of New York. Lately he had been manager for Mrs. James Presnell. Today they pained to yesterday receive news of his death.

THE TELEPHONE QUESTION.

There is no occasion for Paducah going telephone mad again. A year or two ago a number of misguided people were deluded into the belief that another telephone system would reduce rates and improve the service. An effort was made to show them by the experience of other cities and by common-sense reasoning that they were mistaken, but nothing would satisfy but another telephone line, and we have it. There has been no reduction of rates and no improvement in service. Hundreds of people are today compelled to pay for two telephones to carry on their business where formerly they had one, and were better satisfied, for two systems in one house are a nuisance anywhere.

Yet they will not let the telephone question rest! Why should anyone all of a sudden become alarmed over a franchise ordinance in the general council? If such a franchise gave a company a right to charge as much as $10 a month, is it any reason the company would be so stupid as to try it? Or if a company undertook to charge it, is it any sign the general public would have to pay it when by switching to the other company they could get a reasonable rate? If the above are common-sense arguments, is there any reason at all for this idiotic rot about a "grab?"

But to the case in hand. The East Tennessee Telephone company needs no franchise. It has a perpetual grant and the city has never been able to collect a franchise tax, and can never collect one unless the company purchases a franchise, which it voluntarily agreed to do to settle all disputes between the city and itself and prevent them in the future.

A telephone company is in business for the purpose of exchanging its service for money, and while like any other business or enterprise it doubtless wants as much as it can get, it can never get more than a fair rate when it has competition and there is a public that will not consent to being gouged.

The East Tennessee Telephone company is now unrestricted in the matter of rates. It can charge any amount it desires for its service, and always could; it can continue to do so without any franchise, and if it had any designs on the public it could go on as it has since it began business here, and decline to buy or have a franchise.

Since it has voluntarily agreed to purchase a franchise, however, and to pay the city a franchise tax, and be governed by franchise stipulations, it is only fair that a franchise intended for it contain reasonable provisions. It would not be reasonable to say to a company now bound by no limitation in rates, that for the next 20 years it cannot charge more for its service than it charges now. It would not be fair, when in the course of years it adds to its subscribers and to its expense of operation, to compel it to furnish service at the same price it now gets. And if the city intends to do such a foolish thing, the telephone company will probably change its mind about getting a franchise and go on as now, and will the city then be any better off, or the company any worse?

The rates mentioned in this ordinance are merely the maximum rates the company may charge during the next 20 years, not the rates it intends to charge. It cannot afford to charge exorbitant rates, for they would be fatal to its interests as the people would simply change telephones, and no one would be the worse except the company itself.

This seems to be too simple a proposition to wrangle over, and there is not an intelligent business man in the city who cannot easily see that it is such.

The city doesn't have to put up a telephone franchise for sale, and the telephone company doesn't have to buy one. If it does buy one, however, it is safe to venture that it will be a franchise the provisions of which suit the company, and to say the company can never, during the next twenty years, charge more than it does now, will certainly never suit it.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

The board of education has held no "star chamber" sessions, and had no other object in view in changing the date of the election of superintendents than the betterment of the schools. The desire of the board is to have the best schools possible and the most capable superintendent possible to get. There was but one applicant for the position of superintendent, and no one else wanted it, so far as is known. The election was a surprise to this gentleman, who received every vote, and for whose election no "star chamber" session and no "dark lantern methods" were necessary.

The reason the time for electing the superintendent was changed was simply to give the boards of the future a chance to get at the best material before it is all taken, and to let the superintendent know where he stands, so if he is not to be retained he will have time to look for another position. It is an advantage to the schools and an advantage to the superintendent.

In May, the month in which the election has heretofore been held, most of the best superintendents are engaged. In March few elections have been held, and more good men are available. The board's action Tuesday had no bearing whatever on the election this year, and was not intended as a move to forestall anyone or to accomplish anything which might have been impossible later on.

The board has another thing in view along the same line, which is to make the salary of the superintendent so lucrative that the most capable educators in the country will be glad to apply for the position, and will give the city of Paducah an opportunity to get the very best. The only obstacle now is that the schools cannot get the money. Their share of the school funds now barely gives them enough to pay expenses and the assessment of city property will have to be considerably larger for their 35 cents on the $100 to yield enough to give us the school system desired.

No newspaper adds to its popularity by making unfounded charges against the school board when the facts and reasons are so easily obtainable.

When the Democrats were in charge of the schools a few years ago, they had a rule that no man could apply for the superintendency of the Paducah schools without first coming here and proving to the sapient members of the board that he was competent by taking a local examination. Fancy a college graduate or instructor going to that expense and trouble to apply for a $1200 or $1500 job in Paducah!

The object of the rule was to shut everybody out except a favored man or two—and it was only recently that the rule was abolished.

It is said the mayor and others have decided to furnish every member of the board with copies of new ordinances presented for passage, as they do in legislatures. It is presumed this is a printing graft. The city seems to be contemplating a lot of useless expense. Some of the members of these boards wouldn't know what an ordinance meant after they read it. What the mayor ought to do is to furnish a diagram and explanation with every measure.

It seems that the best way to look at the books of democratic county officials is to turn them out of office now and make the inspection later. It appears nothing but the official report of the state inspector will convince some of them that their books are not in good shape.

If our esteemed afternoon contemporary that so frequently flings a bunch of fits over the "trusts" wants to do something, why doesn't it jump on the local laundry trust? This is something near home, and fully appreciated by the people.

A contemporary states that "a public office is not a private snip." It certainly does not refer to McCracken county.

GOOD ADDRESSES

AT THE CONVENTION OF REPUBLICAN EDITORS.

Editor of Leslie's Weekly Roundly Scores Socialism at Yesterday's Session.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 9.—The National Republican Editors' Association held its sixth annual convention here yesterday. Its features were the annual address by the president, John A. Schleicher, of Leslie's Weekly; remarks by Vice President Fairbanks, papers by Dr. A. E. Winship, president of the Massachusetts Editorial Association, W. S. Capper, of Mansfield, Ohio, and Lafe Young, of the Des Moines, Iowa, Capital; a reception at the home of Vice President Fairbanks tonight. Schleicher took strong ground against socialism, which he defined as "a mixture of selfishness, anger, hatred, jealousy and greed." He "questioned whether, if the present tendency of state legislatures to indiscriminately attack corporations were permitted to go on, this country would not be inviting the worst form of socialism and possibly of anarchy." He opposed oppressive combinations, declaring, "Wherever and whenever combination suppresses competition it is followed by monopoly and crushing of the individual. Against that with President Roosevelt we must all stand."

William S. Capper, of Mansfield, Ohio, was elected president and Geo. C. Rankin, of Monmouth, Ill., one of the vice-presidents. A. O. Bunnell, of Danville, Ky., was elected secretary.

BOTH DEAD.

Wanderer Returns to Find Many Changes.

Huntington, Ind., March 9.—James Kelley, who left this city years ago and whose whereabouts have not been known for sometime, returned today to visit his parents, only to find that both were dead. His mother's death took place several months ago in an insane asylum at Logansport, while his father had died some time previous to that. When she died an effort was made to locate the son. His first knowledge of her death was when he stepped off for a visit en route from Arkansas, where he has been a railroad conductor. Mrs. Kelley left a considerable sum of money, $3,000, having been found concealed in her bosom when she was taken to the asylum.

BOTH BOARDS WILL HOLD A MEETING

Council Called to Meet in Special Session.

May Act On Lagomarsino License—Tax Levy Ordinance Will Be Passed Again.

OTHER LOCAL MUNICIPAL NEWS

Mayor D. A. Yeiser has called a special meeting of the council tonight to pass the tax levy ordinance.

He desires to have the ordinance ready for the aldermen and says this will probably be the only matter to be acted on, unless the council wants to take up the matter of granting L. A. Lagomarsino a new license for conducting a coffee house. It is understood attorneys for Mr. Lagomarsino will be present to urge the granting of the license.

The board of works has gone over all street improvement ordinances and the work remaining to be done is simply routine. The board will probably next look over the specifications of City Engineer L. A. Washington for improving the streets. Engineer Washington has completed the Third street specifications and will have several other street profiles by tonight.

The regular meeting of the board of aldermen will be held this evening at the usual hour. It is likely that the petition asking that North Seventh from Jefferson to Clay be reconstructed with brick or some other such material, will be presented, and the Third street reconstruction ordinance also comes up for action. The latter is a measure that has aroused general interest, because there is so much in favor, and so many against it.

The city has notified Col. Bud Dale that his property taken to the pest house sometime ago for which he wants $82, can be recovered if he wants it. It has been fumigated, but of course Col. Dale doesn't want it. He says that he will sue for not only $82, but for $1,000 damages as well.

The new racks and other furnishings for the market house have arrived and will be placed in as soon as the company's man arrives from Cincinnati to do the work.

The board of public works, on account of the inability of some of its members to attend, did not hold its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, but instead postponed it until this afternoon.

NEW MAIL SERVICE.

Installed Between Memphis and Fulton On the I. C.

Arrangements have been perfected whereby all of the small towns between Memphis and Fulton will be supplied with a late afternoon mail service. The medium by which the improvement is made is the Illinois Central local train, known as the Fulton accommodation, which leaves Memphis every afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Two clerks will be used on the train. One of these has already been named. Emmett T. Harris, formerly clerk on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis between Memphis and Jackson, Tenn., was transferred from that run and will have charge of the new service. The other clerk has not yet been named. Mail will not only be carried out of Memphis for the various towns, but it will also be received at every station for delivery along the route.

Heretofore only sealed pouches have been carried out on the afternoon train for delivery at the larger towns.

Burial at Brookport.

Gertrude Boels, colored, aged 18, died at 1208 Jones street this morning at 5 o'clock of consumption and the remains will be shipped to Brookport for interment.

IN THE COURTS

Taken Back to Evansville.

Henry Wilson, colored, arrested several days ago on the Dick Fowler for being a fugitive from justice wanted, at Evansville, Ind., was taken back today by Detective Davis, of Evansville, who arrived last night. Wilson is alleged to be wanted at the Hoosier city for breaking into the establishment of William Meyers, who handles a little of everything. Wilson also goes by the name of Ben Lebert.

Came Down a Little.

The Aberdeen Coal and Mining company, which owns the I. N. Hook, has decided that it is willing to take less than $1,000 for catching the Hoxie when she broke away from her moorings February 11th. The suit recently brought in federal court has been compromised for $200. The amount asked was $1,000.

Goes to Pennsylvania.

Attorney Hal Corbett leaves in a day or two for Uniontown, Pa., on business connected with the case of James Ezell, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to hang. Ezell has two chances yet, that of appeal, and that of executive clemency.

Case Set For 15th.

The trial of Sheriff W. W. Holland of Murray, for the killing of Hardy Keys, does not come up at Benton until March 15th. It was set for the ninth day of the term and not the ninth day of the month.

Warrants Filed Away.

Two indictments for forgery against Dr. Elmer Davis, of this county, were yesterday filed away at Mayfield. The young man was in jail here for sometime for forgery, and was given two years in the penitentiary, but was granted a new trial and came clear. The charges all originated from the alleged forgery of two notes amounting to about $700 and discounting them at a Mayfield bank. The young man comes of an excellent family in the county and has many friends here.

Marriage Licenses.

A. D. King, of the city, aged 34 and Ella Woods, of the county, aged 30, were today licensed to wed.

Went to Jail.

Herman Boren, white, was yesterday fined $50 and costs by Justice Young for firing a pistol on the public highway.

He was originally warranted by Justice Thompson, but skipped out to Graves county, where he was yesterday morning arrested. He was brought to Paducah by Constable M. E. Seay, and on request of Justice

Thompson, the case was tried by Justice Young. The defendant was unable to pay and went to jail.

Police Court.

Judge D. L. Sanders held a brief session of police court this morning, having only two cases before him.

Charles Herman, the young man accused of pawing an overcoat belonging to Mr. Will Dicke, was granted a continuance. Herman is trying to make good his debts here and in event he does, it is said the prosecution will end.

Will King, colored, charged with false swearing was granted a continuance.

WEARS TROUSERS.

Jeffersonville Girl Has a Mania—Was Playing Bartender.

Louisville, Ky., March 9.—Detective Chas. Ross dropped into Levere's saloon, at 510 West Market street, yesterday afternoon. His attention was attracted to a new bartender, who was a youth of unusual good looks. His light hair was cropped close, his complexion was fair, his hands and feet unusually small and he moved about with remarkable grace. When he asked the detective what he would have the latter was surprised to hear a voice that, in spite of some gruffness, seemed unmistakably feminine.

"See here, you are a girl," he asserted.

The bartender made a vigorous denial, but seemed embarrassed, and under "sweating" broke down and began to cry in a still more feminine style.

The bartender was taken to the detective's office and was there found to be Bertie Helms, a Jeffersonville girl, with a mania for masquerading as a boy, who has gained local fame through her adventures.

The girl about a year ago donned boy's attire and succeeded in working as a stable boy for a Jeffersonville physician for several months. She was detected and returned to dresses for a time. Then she went to the mines at LaFollette, Tenn., where she worked in the mines, performing the hardest labor. With her chum who thought she was a boy, she returned to Louisville, where she was arrested last summer. She agreed to become a girl again and was not heard of until arrested yesterday. She had been working as a bartender at the saloon for a week.

TRUTH COMING OUT

NOW THEORY THAT MRS. STANFORD COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Police Say They Found No Strychnine in the Woman's Home.

Honolulu, March 9.—The testimony of the chemists in the inquest on Mrs. Stanford's death practically completes the case for the jury and tonight the witnesses will sign the transcripts of their testimony in the presence of the jury.
Attorney General Andrews is said to have been directing his questions with the idea of bringing out the probability of the suicide of Mrs. Stanford, using as the basis of such theory the fact that Mrs. Stanford in San Francisco became acquainted with the extreme bitterness of the taste of strychnine, yet made no remark on the night of her death that she had experienced the same taste in the medicine which is said to have caused the end of her life.

No Strychnine.

San Francisco, Cal., March 9.—The police authorities have deemed it necessary to deny the persistent rumors afloat that they found strychnine in Mrs. Stanford's residence here. Acting Chief of Police Spillane has given out a statement saying no strychnine was found in Mrs. Stanford's residence.

Another case is that of the city of Gilbertsville against the I. C. for $5,000 damages for flooding the streets and portions of the town with construction work.

The third important suit is that of Cordie Nichols against the N. C. & St. L. road, for $5,000 damages for personal injuries.

Attorney L. K. Taylor has returned from Memphis and Helena, Ark., where he was called on business. It seems that Mrs. Anderson never asserted her rights, and is barred from the greater portion of the property by limitation, but she may reclaim one-third, that portion of her deceased mother, which will amount to about $8,000, the estate being valued at $25,000.

SUDDEN END

Of the Defense in the Chadwick Case.

Cleveland, O., Mar. 9.—The defense in the Chadwick case suddenly rested this morning after the examination of T. C. Doelittle, the expert accountant. Banker Marshal Cleveland answered technical questions relating to bank bookkeeping. The defense moved that Judge Taylor order a verdict for Mrs. Chadwick and the witnesses were dismissed and court adjourned until this afternoon.

The most important point made by the state in its entire case was gained today when District Attorney Sullivan, after a hard fight with the attorney for the defense secured the admission as evidence of two drafts aggregating $80,000 issued by the Oberlin bank in favor of Mrs. Chadwick August 24, 1903. On this same date, Mrs. Chadwick obtained from the bank certified checks for $12,500, and Receiver Lyon testified there was nothing on the bank's books to show that at the time of receiving the drafts and checks, Mrs. Chadwick had a cent in the bank or was in any way entitled to credit.

Wing's motion was to take the case from the jury and this in effect is a motion to acquit, since the judge cannot instruct a jury on a verdict of guilty. The judge has not yet rendered his decision.

Woman Who Killed Six Persons Waived a Jury Trial.

Lynchburg, Va., March 9.—Mrs. Sallie M. Hanna, who administered rough on rats to a family of six persons because the family had given shelter to the husband of the prisoner, whom she had run away from home, appeared in court today, waived trial by jury and threw herself on the mercy of the court. The judge announced that he would take the matter under advisement, and it is probable that he will hear the evidence in the case tomorrow.

ESCAPE FROM JAIL EFFECTED BY LAWS

Forger Arrested in Paducah
Did the Work.

He Sawed the Bars of the Jail at Madisonville, Ky., It Is Said.

HAS NOT BEEN RECAPTURED

H. B. Laws, alias several other things, the forger captured in the New Richmond hotel here several months ago for forging scores of checks on a Cincinnati house and passing them in various parts of Kentucky and other states, proves to have been the ringleader in the jail delivery at Madisonville a few nights ago. Three of the escaped prisoners have been recaptured but it is believed Laws has put several hundred miles between himself and his pursuers and will never be caught.

A Madisonville dispatch says: H. B. Laws, the forger, managed the jail delivery which liberated himself, three men charged with murder and a boy under sentence to the reform school from the Hopkins county jail at this place last Thursday night.

The capture of Otha Armstrong, the boy, by Sheriff Ashby brought about the development of the story of the escape. It also showed that Garth Thompson, the negro under sentence of death in the jail and who was the first to call to Jailer Offutt and notify him of the escape of the white prisoners, had been using the same saws used by Laws in an attempt to get out of the jail himself.

The Armstrong boy is but thirteen years of age and was captured at the home of an aunt near Kelly's Station in this county. He at once agreed to tell the officers of how the delivery was accomplished.

Armstrong said that a negro visitor to the jail left the saws with Laws. He then took Hall and Morgan, charged with the murder of Perd Lutz, and Lewis Wilbert, charged with the murder of Gus McIntosh, and Armstrong into his plan for escape. While Armstrong acted as lookout the men did the sawing on the bars. The boy says a place in the lower part of the cage was sawed out large enough to permit him to pass. Through that hole he crawled and then unlocked the cage doors, liberating the other prisoners on the night of the escape. The work on the outside window bars was done by fastening the saws to a broom handle and sawing until they were cut.

The boy says the men left the jail at 7 o'clock in the evening. Thompson did not call the jailer until 2 o'clock in the morning.

Armstrong told the officials that before they left the jail the saws were passed up to Garth Thompson, the condemned negro. An investigation of his cell proved that he had attempted to use them, but had evidently passed them out to some visitor fearing detection.

The captured boy says that the men remained together until they reached the Victoria mines, a short distance from the city. Then they separated, he remaining with Laws until they reached Earlington and where the latter bade him goodbye and caught a passenger train going north. He rode out of Earlington "blind baggage."

There have been two others captured since the above was sent out. John Hall and Jeff Morgan. The prisoners were at the home of Hall's brother, near Providence. A reward of $450 had been offered by the governor for their capture.

EX-SHERIFF DEAD

MR. GEORGE W. RATCLIFFE SUC-
CUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS.

Was an Honored Citizen, Who Had Done Much For the Interest of His County.

Mr. George W. Ratcliffe, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of McCracken county, died this morning at 5 o'clock at his home near Maxon's Mills, of softening of the brain. He had been critically ill for some time, and in his death the county loses a man who was during his public career, one of the most popular and efficient officials in this section.

The deceased was about 75 years old and was born in Virginia, moving to Kentucky in 1840. He was a bachelor and leaves few near relatives. He leaves a sister, Miss Jane Ratcliffe, with whom he resided, and several nephews. The latter are Messrs. R. J. Settle, I. D. Wilcox and Pete Stanley, of Paducah.

The deceased was for several terms sheriff of this county and made a good and efficient officer. After retiring from politics he went to farming and had been so engaged ever since.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence near Maxon Mills, interment at the family burial ground.

FULTON MAN

Killed in Memphis by an Enraged
Brother.

Memphis, Tenn., Mar. 9.—Declaring that he would avenge an alleged insult to his sister-in-law, Tony Guide, a laborer, late today shot and killed Wm. McGinnes, a trainman, and seriously wounded Aleck McLaughlin, as the two men were hurrying down a long flight of stairs from Guide's rooms on Jefferson street, in the uptown district. Guide has been placed under arrest and McLaughlin is at the city hospital.

McLaughlin and McGinnes had presented themselves at Guide's rooms by mistake. Guide's sister-in-law inquired their business, and McLaughlin, who, it is said, was drinking, is alleged to have made an offensive remark to her, whereupon Guide rushed out with a shotgun and fired on the men as they were hastening down stairs.

McGinnes was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of Albany, N. Y. His father lives near Fulton, Ky.

WESTERN SHIPPERS ASK BETTER RATES

Important Meeting to Be Held in Chicago.

Much of the Goods Affected Passes
Through Paducah and Other Kentucky Points.

MAY AFFECT KENTUCKY RATES.

A meeting of the executive officials of railroads will be held in Chicago in a few days to take up an important rate question, which involves the interests of Kentucky. For many years the rates on all classes of freight from New York to the south-east have been less than from Chicago and western points, in spite of the fact that the distance from New York is greater. It is alleged by shippers that the discrimination is unfair and that western manufacturers have been deprived of a natural market by the action of railroads.

The railroads have always contended that they were forced to make the low rates from New York to keep in line with steamship competition. The cost of carrying freight by steamship from New York to an Atlantic coast point in the south and the additional cost of railroad transportation from the port to the inland markets, are far below the cost of all-rail transportation, so it is contended, the railroads had to make an abnormally low rate or give up the business altogether.

From the standpoint of the shipper, however, it appears to be a simple case of discrimination in favor of eastern manufacturers, and commercial organizations in the west have taken action that they now have reason to believe may result in what they call an "equalization" of rates. Much of the business from Chicago and St. Louis to the southeast passes through Paducah and other Kentucky cities, and a reduction in the rates from those points would undoubtedly have effect upon the rates of Kentucky.

STILL WORKING

On Mystery—Officer Austin Makes
Visit to Mayfield.

Patrol Driver John Austin has gone to Mayfield to appear before the grand jury, presumably in the case of the unknown murdered man whose identity has been a mystery, baffling the police force there for several weeks.

Patrol Driver Austin and Marshal McNutt, of Mayfield, have been working on the case and several clues were run down. The latest developments came from the story of a local negro who claims to have been present when the murder was committed, alleging that the man was killed in a cellar in some Mayfield house. The local police force has been working on this matter and it is said has uncovered something and Patrol Driver Austin has gone down to appear in the case before the grand jury.

The general opinion seems to be, however, that the man killed himself and was not murdered. This is the opinion of the coroner at Mayfield, as well as of many others.

FOUND TRUNK.

It Was Picked Up in the Middle of the Street.

A trunk was found in the street near Ninth and Burnett streets this morning by officers and brought to the city hall to await the claimant. The trunk is a nicely built sample trunk and contained several pairs of cuffs, collars, some underwear, a shaving outfit and other personal wearing apparel. No name was found and the trunk is at the city hall waiting the owner.

CHAPTER XXXI.

THE warden of Traquair castle sought the earl in his library, where he sat an anxious man, with many documents spread out on a table before him.

"Your lordship, there's a soldier in the uniform of the English rebels at the gates who says he's a friend of Cromwell's and begs a word with you."

"Ah!" said the earl, frowning. "They've caught poor Armstrong, then, and now, in addition to our troubles, we'll need to bargain with that scoundrel to save his neck. Everything is against us."

"He may be an Englisher, but he's got a Scotch accent, as broad as the Tweed."

"He's one of our countrymen fighting for Cromwell, and therefore thought by that shrewd villain the better emissary. Bring him in."

When William and the warden came in together, a moment or two passed before the earl recognized his visitor. Then he sprang forward and held out both his hands.

"In heaven's name, Armstrong, is this you?" he cried. "What have they done to you? Save us all! Who has accosted you like this?"

"The necessities of the chase, Traquair. This is a disguise, and, although you saw through it, I'm happy to think I deluded Jack Tamson there."

"Lost!" cried Tamson, peering forward. "You'll never threep doon ma throat that this is Wall Armstrong."

"Sir William, if you please, Tamson," corrected the new knight. "The title was bestowed upon me by his majesty himself, and I shall expect that deference from the lower orders, Tamson, which the designation calls for. Is the castle tailor out of work, Traquair?"

"My whole wardrobe is at your disposal, Will."

"Nothing in it would fit me, and I am a thought particular about a new dress, as I have lost all self respect in this one. I may borrow a hat from you, if you have one of the latest fashion, with a fine feather on it. Still, it isn't duds, but fool, that is the first necessity. I've had nothing all day but a hurried drink out of the Eden."

"They're preparing supper for you now, and I'll bear you company when it's ready. I'm eager to hear what befell. So the king knighted you. Deed, he might have gone farther than that and made you a marquis or a duke at the same cost."

"Oh, he offered me anything in his gift if I brought the commission safely through to you—a promise that I'm thinking I'll never trouble him to redeem. Nevertheless, here's the packet, a little damp, but none the worse for that."

He placed the cause of all the trouble on the table, and Traquair turned it over and over in his hands, with no great delight in its possession, as the messenger thought. The earl sighed as he opened it at last and slowly perused its contents in silence, laying it on the table again when he had finished.

"You're a wonderful man, William," he said. "If every one in Scotland did his duty as thoroughly as you do it, we would soon place the king on his throne again."

"Is there more trouble brewing?"

"More trouble and the old trouble and the new trouble. Every one pulling his own way and in all directions, thinking only of himself and never by any chance of the interests of the whole."

"May I tell Cromwell that? He seemed at some pains to intercept a billet that you receive too lightly."

"Tell Cromwell! You're never going to write to that scoundrel?"

"I intend to see him before the week is past."

"What! You're not such a fool as to put yourself in Cromwell's clutch again?"

"Cromwell's not such a fool as to hang me, if he did, it would but unite your wavering hosts like an invasion of Scotland."

"Have you actually seen him?"

"I met him the first day I crossed the border. I saw him once again, and I traveled over most of England on a pass from his own hand. Cromwell and I have a mutual respect for each other by this time, but there are some matters of difference between us that I think will best be settled by word of mouth, so I'm off day after tomorrow to foregather with him. I cannot go sooner because my new gear will not be ready, and I want to give the general time to withdraw his troops from across the country so that I may come on him in other fettle than as a prisoner."

"Who is the woman, Will? I knew you would go clean daff when you met her."

"Never you mind. As the border is a land of nobility and romance, we will call her an earl's daughter to please you."

"More like some peasant girl who assisted you to escape from your enemies."

At this point, greatly to the delight of Armstrong, his supper was announced, and Traquair, with his arm over the shoulder of his guest, led him to the dining room.

(To Be Continued.)

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbina is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived, the languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Middlesboro, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbina. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50c. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

Contemplated By Street Car Company of Paducah.

Messrs. Gus Thompson and Dan Simon, of the street car company, have gone to St. Louis to purchase new street cars.

The street car company is now installing its fine 800-horse-power engine at its power house on Second street, making eight big engines it has.

The company has decided to tear up the rails of that portion of the Rowlandtown line that has been abandoned, as soon as better weather arrives.

The time for completing the new grand stand at Wallace park grounds has been extended because of the bad weather.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. SUE GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

Veteran Cut Throat.

Louisville, March 9.—Peter Snatt, one of the first Confederate veterans to become an inmate of the Home at Pewee Valley, attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. The attempt was made while suffering under mental depression due to the severe suffering from white swelling. The veteran's condition is serious, but not necessarily hopeless.

Mr. Snatt is seventy years of age. He was admitted to the Home from Owensboro three years ago, and was one of the first to enter the Home after it was opened. He is a native of Germany, but came to America when a lad. At the beginning of the war his sympathies were with the south, and he entered the Second Kentucky Infantry, Company E, and served in the Orphan Brigade throughout the war, making a good record for fearlessness. Snatt was never married, and has no relatives in this country.

Conference of Mormons.

Owingsville, Ky., March 9.—The annual spring conference of the Kentucky department of the Mormons, or "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" will be held at the court house here next Saturday and Sunday, March 11 and 12. Many leading men of the Mormon religion will be present, among them being Elder Ben E. Rich, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Southern States Mission, and Elder A. J. Aagard, of Louisville, president of the Kentucky conference. The elders will be assigned to charges for the ensuing year, and several sermons will be preached. There are about fifty converts to the Mormon religion in Bath county, and these, with many converts from other counties, will be present in force.

One Hundred Years Old.

Marion, Ky., March 9.—The fifth Sunday in April will mark the one-hundredth anniversary of the Missionary Baptist church at Old Salem and on that day services celebrating the centennial of the organization of the church will be held there by deacons and ministers of the Ohio River Association. This church was organized at the home of Jeremiah Fulkerson in 1805, and at that time the deed to the first church lot was sent by some of the charter members to old Centerville, near where Mexico Station on the Illinois Central railroad now stands, to be recorded, as the county seat was then located there.

Two Paroles Granted.

Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—H. S. McCutcheon, of Russellville, whom Governor Beckham appointed a member of the state prison commission to succeed J. M. Richardson, of Barren county, presented his commission and sat with that body.

Paroles were granted by the commission as follows: William Haynes, colored, of Hickman county, sent up eighteen years ago for life for murder; Charles Inman, of Laurel county, sent up two years ago to serve six years for manslaughter. He is ill of consumption.

Smithland's Mail Service.

Smithland, Ky., Mar. 9.—Through the efforts of Hon. Ollie James, Smithland will have her mails twice a day or twelve times a week, from Calvert city. Already bids or proposals from carriers have been advertised for and the new route may be put on by April 1st. The Grand Rivers-Smithland route will be discontinued from March 31st, but a daily route from Grand Rivers to Newburn will be put on April 1st, 1905.

The President's Visit.

Louisville, Mar. 9.—President Roosevelt's visit to Louisville will be delayed until April 6, and perhaps longer. He originally intended to reach here March 28.

Louisville was the only city at which the president had intended stopping on his way to the reunion of the Rough Riders in San Antonio, Tex. The reunion was to have been held March 31st, but it has been postponed until April 7, upon the personal request of the president, who will be unable to leave Washington earlier on account of the uncertainty as to when the senate will adjourn the extraordinary session.

Cutting at Hopkinsville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 9.—In a difficulty between William Hayes and Peter Laub, the latter's throat was cut, the knife blade barely missing the jugular. A six-inch gash was also cut in his left arm. Both are under arrest.

Attempted to Assassinate Deputy. Louisville, Ky., Mar. 9.—A special from Jackson, Ky., says: Much excitement has been caused here by the attempt to assassinate Deputy Sheriff Hiram Centers. Centers stepped out of a restaurant and started in the direction of the court house. When he reached a corner an unknown man stepped up behind him and threw a weight at his head, striking him below the shoulders, breaking two of his ribs and inflicting internal injuries. The blow knocked him to his knees, and in this position he drew his pistol and fired in the direction of the retreating figure, but without result.

Louisville's New Armory.

Louisville, Ky., Mar. 9.—Louisville's new armory will cost $443,000 as the plans are at present. The fiscal court yesterday added $14,000 to the cost to secure gray stone facings for the windows and doors instead of brick. It also enlarged the heating plant to cost $15,000 more.

Dies of Bright's Disease.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 9.—Samuel R. White, a wealthy farmer and prominent citizen of Julien, this county, died after a long illness of Bright's disease. He was for many years captain of the Christian County Hunting club. He was 85 years old, a native of Virginia, and is survived by a widow and three children.

Died at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Mar. 9.—Moses Levy, senior member of Levy Bros., large retail clothiers, died suddenly of acute indigestion. He had played cards with friends until midnight. He was 65 years of age.

Couldn't Stand to Leave.

Lexington, Ky., Mar. 9.—Because the trustee of the Baptist church at East Hickman notified him that he would have to surrender the parsonage building where he had lived for years, to a new preacher, Macajah Brook, aged 80 years, blew out his brains.

Only a Joke.

Louisville, Ky., Mar. 9.—Matt J. Winn, president of the American Turf Association, has called a meeting of that body for next Tuesday in Chicago to confirm recently-allotted dates and go over the rules and by-laws recently adopted at the New Orleans meeting.

Mr. Winn was asked if any action would be taken regarding the outlawing of a number of horsemen by the Western Jockey Club.

"No; we will not recognize or take any notice of the action," said Mr. Winn. "It is a stupendous joke."

Death in Calloway.

Murray, Ky., March 9.—Mrs. Ann Robertson died at her son-in-law's, Mr. Jake Taylor's of dropsy. She was 77 years old and her husband, Mr. Neal Robertson, died just five days before she did.

FOUR KILLED.

In a Mine Accident Near Charleston, of West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., March 9.—At Shrewsbury, a mining village 16 miles above here, a mine car loaded with coal and carrying ten workmen who were coming from the mine, dashed 1,000 feet down an incline, killing four of the miners and injuring four others. The dead are: ANDREW HUNT, aged 35, married.

WILLIAM M'SURLEY, aged 18. JOHN M'SURLEY, aged 17. ED M'GLOTHLON, aged 19.

The men were riding down to their homes when the rope pulled out of the "dead eye end" of the drawhead and the car descended like lightning to the bottom of the incline, 1,000 feet below.

Two of the men jumped as soon as the car was released and were unhurt. Others jumped later and were injured more or less severely. Four stayed until the car smashed to the tipple demolishing it and being itself destroyed.

STANDARD OIL INDICTED

Retaining From a Wagon Without a License.

Cynthiana, Ky., March 9.—The grand jury has brought in two hundred indictments against the Standard Oil company, which is charged "with retaining from a wagon without a license." The fine in each case varies from $50 to $1,000. The lowest possible penalties will be $10,000. The indictments were made after one recently passed on by Judge O'Rea of the court of appeals of Kentucky, which held the Standard Oil company liable for license in an Oldham, Ky., case.

MUCH FEELING

AT THE MINERS' CONVENTION IN SESSION AT LOUISVILLE.

The Scale Has Not Yet Been Decided On By the Delegates—Session May Last Several Days.

Louisville, Ky., Mar. 9.—The scale for the ensuing year has not yet been decided on by the miners convention in session here. The session may last several days longer yet.

The mine workers had a heated session yesterday. The charges of "rottenness," which were made by former Secretary George Baker in a letter to President Wells, were re-sented by Secretary-Treasurer Wood, who demanded that a committee be appointed to investigate the books of himself, Baker and Campbell for their terms as secretary-treasurer.

Baker stated that he had not referred to Wood's books when he spoke of "rottenness" in connection with Central City offices, but referred to a scandal over a woman.

Wood declared himself satisfied with this explanation, but President Wells took exception. A long and bitter controversy followed. A committee was appointed to make an investigation, but was afterwards dropped.

The controversy was finally settled by the convention agreeing to drop it. The discussion was red-hot, and at times looked like trouble. A motion was finally carried that all concerned in the trouble step before the rostrum and shake hands. This was done.

The election of officers resulted: C. W. Wells, Central City, re-elected president; A. J. Doss, of Cleaton, vice president; W. E. Hicks, of Central City, secretary-treasurer; W. J. Campbell, colored, member of the national board.

SHERIFF'S PISTOL

Goes Off and Kills Prisoner's Son—Was An Accident.

Lincoln, Ill., March 9.—Samuel Hatchett was accidentally shot and probably fatally wounded by the sheriff of Logan county, during the capture of his father, Wm. Hatchett, an insane man who had escaped from jail. The son was a spectator while the sheriff made the capture, the latter's revolver being discharged during the struggle.

STREAM OF GOLD.

Flowed From the Pot Which a Farmer Found in a Big Tree He Ignited.

Coshocton, O., March 9.—Jacob Stillbauer, in burning out an old sugar stump on his farm near Keene today, found a pot of gold and silver coins suspended in the hollow of a tree. His first intimation of the treasure was a molten stream of gold among the cinders.

Stillbauer has a washpan filled with the half molten mass and coins are still plainly discernible, though they are badly melted by the fire that had continued since early Monday.

The value of the mass is estimated at $3,000. It is supposed to have been hidden by some pioneer in early Indian days.

ADDITIONAL WAR

enemy. It is announced the Japanese occupied Putloff Hill last night.

Japanese Are Happy.

Tokio, Mar. 9.—Official announcement of the result of Oyama's pursuit of the Russians is expected today. Flags are flying all over the city, and congratulations are pouring into the office of the minister of war.

The Situation Now.

St. Petersburg, March 9.—The battle of Mukden has resulted in a Russian defeat.

Oyama has once more proved himself one of the greatest masters of offensive strategy since Napoleon.

The problem before Kuropatkin is much more difficult than the one he met successfully at Liao Yang, since now he is threatened on both flanks. His left wing being entangled in a mountainous region far from the railroad. Nevertheless, the Russian military men here express a fair degree of confidence in Kuropatkin's ability once more to extricate his army and avoid a Russian Sedan.

It is known that Kuropatkin contemplated retirement before the beginning of the battle, and that he had hoped to accomplish it without serious combat. The Japanese, however, forced him to accept battle. The double turning movement compelled him to send the major part of his reserves to the fighting line and rendered an effective counter stroke out of the question, and the decision to retire was immediately taken on March 6 as was stated by the Associated Press that day. Withdrawal was actually begun during the night.

The great question now, and one over which the general staff burned its lights late into the night, is whether Oyama has entangled Russians in his strategic retreat sufficiently to prevent successful retreat to Tie Pass.

If the Japanese succeed in reaching the railroad and interrupting traffic, if only for a few hours, it may have the greatest consequences for Kuropatkin, who is now engaged in a literal race with the Japanese to reach a naturally defensive position forty miles northward. But if Kuropatkin succeeds in turning over the army intact, with the principal portion of its artillery train, to his successor, the Russian case will be by no means desperate.

All reports indicate that the Japanese were utterly reckless of sacrifices, making attack after attack against machine guns and infantry fire which literally mowed down advancing columns, making human flesh so cheap that survivors could bastion themselves behind piles of corpses.

After this action Kuropatkin's deposition may be regarded as certain. War Minister Sakharoff is picked as his probable successor.

HINDOO EATS LIVE SNAKES.

Costly, But Unique Meals Enjoyed By Oriental Character.

Paris, March 9.—ne of the most interesting inhabitants of the French capital at the present moment is undoubtedly Osco, the snake-eater, whose performances daily attract large crowds eager to witness one of the most marvelous and almost superhuman feats of a man who shares the abode of hundreds of enormous poisonous snakes, each from four to six feet long, and allows himself to be bitten without feeling the slightest effect, and, last but not least, makes a meal of one of the dreadful rattlesnakes.

Osco sits in a kind of box about the size of a railway compartment seemingly enjoying the company of these poisonous reptiles, which crawl all over his body. A loud buzzing sound, so dreaded by those who have encountered the rattlesnake on his native ground, can be clearly heard when Osco excites the wrath of the snakes, and every now and then an ugly serpent's head darts forward and viciously bites this wonderful man, on whom the deadly sting of a rattler has no effect.

With a cautious movement Osco places his hand on the back of the head of the snake he has selected for his peculiar meal as if intended to caress it, then he grips the villainous animal so tight that escape is impossible. In vain the furious reptile struggles to regain his freedom, but merely succeeds in winding itself round the muscular arms of his antagonist.

Osco next proceeds to bite the head of the serpent; then, throwing it away, he quickly skins the body of his prey and starts eating it, as though he had a good appetite, and the meal was quite to his taste. Many medical men have examined Osco, but fail to understand why he should be proof against the bites of these terribly poisonous reptiles when a bite from one would extinguish the life of any other human being.

Strange to relate, one of Osco's meals cost just as much as if he had dined at one of Europe's most expensive restaurants, as each snake is valued at about 250 francs owing to about 5 per cent. dying on their way to Europe. The native land of Osco, the snake-eater, is India.
